Full job description

- Canberra based role
- Run jobs and a team in a busy practice

About Our Client

This is a terrific and highly recognisable brand with inspiring leadership and a number of lines of service that are consistently growing here in Canberra.

Reflecting the wider economic stumbles they are seeking an Insolvency Manager, or even Assistant Manager, that is looking to advance their career and be mentored and developed by industry leaders.

Job Description

This role would suit an ambitious candidate capable of running the full life cycle of jobs, including director and personal insolvency.

The Successful Applicant

You should be demonstrably commercial and be able to think and position views in line with the matter at hand, as well as comfortably run a team and talk to all relevant parties from officers of the court to individual creditors. The firm has a wonderfully inclusive culture and the Partner's are hugely regarded nationally.

What's on Offer

This is an opening for a candidate who can bring technical skill and personal smarts to the table and genuinely advance their career. They will reward and develop strong performance and give you a platform to excel.
