Full job description

Your new company

Our client is a well-respected organisation that facilitates quality maintenance work on remote camp sites in South Australia. Due to some upcoming projects we are looking for suitably qualified Plumbers (South Australian Licensed) to join our pool of staff.

Your new role

The role will see you providing maintenance support across remote campsites and will require highly skilled and fully qualified Plumbers that hold South Australian Licences. Plumbers that are qualified for working with gas appliance are also highly desirable. You will be confident across fault finding and inspections, with a mixture of domestic and commercial maintenance work involved.

What you'll need to succeed

Successful applicants must have current South Australian licences, white card and be MUST be based in South Australia (being based in close proximity to Adelaide airport would be highly advantageous). This role will see you working away from home on a 14 day on 7 day off roster.

It will be highly advantageous if you have a current police check (dated within the last 6 months) and have worked at remote mining camps within South Australia previously. Shortlisted applicants will be required to meet employment criteria that include but not limited to a full pre-employment medical with a drug and alcohol test, you will also have to complete several hours of online inductions before you can fly to a remote site. Candidates will have to provide their own hand tools on site as well as steel toe cap boots.

What you need to do now
